

SILAS FLOOR LAMP

The Silas Floor Lamp is a modern exploration of clean lines and minimalist shapes inspired by the De Stijl design movement. The lamp finds its inspiration through the simplified approach to the basic shapes and their applications. Highlighting the organic warmth of the solid wood and the integration of the textured cloth cord, the lamp finds its more contemporary approach. As the human eye is drawn to geometry this lamp prefers to make its statement with smooth curves, striking lines, bold colors and rich wood grain.
