The Silas Wall Mirror embodies elegant minimalism, drawing inspiration from the playful use of shape and geometry that defined the Mid-Century Modern movement.

Its handcrafted solid wood frame exudes warmth and refinement, while the innovative use of negative space and linear elements within the circular form creates a striking yet harmonious visual balance.

This artistic contemporary design effortlessly merges function with beauty, making the Silas Wall Mirror a standout piece in both classic and modern home interiors. A true statement of design, its subtle details enhance any space with an air of sophistication and timeless appeal.
